THE VOTES ARE IN

farragutpress readers make their choices for their favorite businesses within the Town of Farragut limits

MICHELLE HOLLENHEAD
mhollenhead@farragutpress.com

To borrow from the long-running TV show Survivor, “the tribe has spoken,” and for the second year in a row, the top Farragut businesses have been chosen by you, our readers, of the farragutpress.

Readers used ballots printed in the paper (which had to be the actual ballots — not reproductions, to be counted) to vote for their favorite Farragut businesses in a variety of categories. “We had more ballots than last year, with a lot more community input,” said farragutpress Advertising Manager Sherry Long.

“We were really glad to see the number of voters we had — it took a long time to count the votes.” She said the requirements for businesses to be considered were they lie within the town limits, however other businesses nominated, even those outside of Farragut, are listed under each category, as well. Inside this section, you will find a listing of more than 80 “best of the best,” including Best Produce (Publix); Best Sporting Goods Store (Fleet Feet); Best Storage Facility (U-Haul); Best Family Restaurant (Cracker Barrel); Best Family Fitness Center (Planet Fitness); Best

Insurance Agency and Best Car/RV/Boat Loans (Mansour Hasan State Farm — The Hasan Agency); and Best Pet Shop and Best Pet Grooming Service (both Pet Smart). Just months into a new move from West Knoxville into Farragut, Mansour Hasan State Farm — The Hasan Agency was named not only Best Insurance Agency but also No. 1 in the Best Car/RV/Boat Loans category. Office manager Sarah Lunsford said the agency “was really thankful, and honored, that our customers feel that way about us. We couldn’t do what we do without them. We are excited we get to help people,” she continued. “It is why we come in every day, and to be awarded in those two (categories) is amazing.”

It was also the first year for Planet Fitness to win its category, since the business has only been open since September 2017.

“This gym really resonates with our membership,” said Club Manager Nick Chase. “We promote fitness for our members no matter what their age or physical condition may be, from first time gym users on up. Our members know they will not be judged, but encouraged,” he continued, noting that the club has memberships nearing the 2,000 mark, which he expects to achieve by its first anniversary.

Pet Smart’s senior manger of public relations Melissa Wenzel praised the company’s first-time win, and said it is “thrilled to be voted ‘Best Pet Store’ and ‘Best Grooming’ by readers and local pet parents.

“We love serving the people and pets of the Knoxville community and are humbled and grateful for this recognition.”

Also listed in this section are many repeat winners, including Best Florist and Best Grocery Store (Kroger); Best Credit Union (ORNL Federal Credit Union); Best Optometrist/Vision Center and Best Customer Service (The Eye Group); Best Convenience Store (Weigel’s); and Best Security Service (His Security), just to name a few.

Two-time dual category winner Kroger Store manger Marty Irwin said, “we are very excited to have been voted Best Grocery Store and Best Florist by the readers of the farragutpress.

“Our purpose at Kroger is to feed the human spirit and we work hard to do that every day. Our customers are the greatest and we are so thankful for them.”

Melissa Manning, office manager for The Eye Group, which is owned by Dr. Joseph Manning and Dr. Dorian Laine, said the business “is very excited” about their dual win for the second year.

“Our whole goal is to take care of the people of Knoxville, and our patients come first,” she said. “We do everything we can to make the experience as pleasant as possible, from the the front end to the back end. That is what we strive for.”

The Eye Group has been serving clients from its Farragut location for 25 years, and also has a second office in South Knoxville.

Farragut Putt-Putt Golf & Games is also a repeat winner, in both the Best Kids Party Venue and Best Mini-Golf categories. Marva Vaughan, who has owned the business with her husband, David, since 1991, said they are “thrilled and honored at having won this two years in a row. We have pride in the fact that we are providing a great experience for our customers that is also a great value in a nice clean environment for friends and families to gather. We hope (our winning) will continue, on and on, as long as the farragutpress (holds this contest).

“It is also a great opportunity to let others know we have such a nice facility, and come to see what Putt-Putt Golf & Games, and Farragut, has to offer.”
